A Compromised Lady by Elizabeth Rolls - Goodreads
Elizabeth Rolls is an accomplished writer, who conveys her character's emotions with depth and skill. The heroine, Dorothea [Thea] is forcibly returned from exile in the country to marry a man of her father's choice, having been badly treated by him and a man whom she once considered marrying, and although the circumstances of Thea's fall from virtue are revealed, it is done very, very slowly.

A Compromised Lady book by Elizabeth Rolls - Thriftbooks

I first came across Elizabeth Rolls through her contributions to the AAR website forums and then in one of her short stories. As I enjoyed the short story, I decided to check out her novels and started with A Dutiful Rake which struck me, despite following a somewhat cliched plot, as a satisfying and entertaining read.
