Maury Allen - Wikipedia

Maury Allen (born Maurice Allen Rosenberg; May 2, 1932–October 3, 2010) was an American sportswriter, actor, and columnist for the New York Post and the Journal-News. He was also a voter for the Baseball Hall of Fame .

All Roads Lead to October: Boss Steinbrenner's 25-Year ...

In All Roads Lead to October, Maury Allen refracts the broad spectrum. Wandering genially from story to story and era to era, he scatters anecdotes and observations like a spray hitter in a book that reads like a long evening on a barstool beside an old sportswriter (which he is). He may stray at times, but he never gets lost.

Amazon.ca:Customer reviews: All Roads Lead to October ...

This book should have been titled "All Roads Lead to the Locker Room: Sportswriter Allen's 25-Year Beat with the New York Yankees." To put Steinbrenner's name in the title and then refer to him so sparingly is like giving an actor top billing in a film and then killing off his character in the first scene.
