Berg, Carol -- Breath and Bone - eblong.com

Berg, Carol -- Breath and Bone Conclusion of epic fantasy about junkie magician trying to save the world and, if possible, avoid being ground to oatmeal between a three-way civil war, an apocalyptic religious movement, a lost civilization of notably unforgiving elves, and his relatives. Breath and Bone: Carol Berg: 9780451462473: Books - Amazon.ca

The only flaw from my perspective is that Berg is a bit slow to launch us into the main conflict. There's a lot of set up at the beginning. She picks up momentum as as the story progresses. Sticking with the novel is definitely worthwhile.

Breath and Bone by Carol Berg | Books Without Any Pictures

Breath and Bone is the second book in Carol Berg's Lighthouse Duet. It picks up where Flesh and Spirit rather abruptly cuts off. I would recommend reading the two books at one time, as it has the general feel of a book that has been cut into two to make the length of each segment seem more manageable.

Breath and Bone (Audiobook) by Carol Berg | Audible.com

Breath and Bone, Lighthouse, Book 2 . By Carol Berg delivers a multidimensional plot with intriguing characters that will leave you wanting more. I highly recommend this book and its prequel to all fans of fantasy. However, the narration, as with the prequel, is not what I would have wished. The pacing seems, to me, a bit awkward. There are multiple mispronunciations of words and
