House Rules (Chicagoland Vampires Book 7) Neill continues to create some of the best characters in the genre. The H/h and their relationship is great to read and often had me smiling at their interactions. The supporting characters are well rounded, amusing and naturally since they are vamps and shifters they are all hot! What more could you want? Read more. 2 people found this helpful. Go

I'd seen her at the House, in formation with the rest of the GP members, but there she'd been one of many. Here she was a standout. She was obviously a vampire, and obviously a strong one. Even with no obvious vampiric features - fangs and silvered eyes hidden - she radiated magic in undulating waves. I had a natural immunity to glamour, but I felt it slip across the room and just touch the
