Island Wife Judy Fairbairns

ISLAND WIFE: living on the edge of the wild My childhood socks were always white, my frocks ironed. Each day predictable, safe. And yet the rebel was growing in me, restless, searching. I escaped. Aged 19, I was swept off my feet by a wild adventurer and married within months. Two small children later (with

Island Wife: Living on the Edge of the Wild by Judy Fairbairns

Island Wife tells the story of Judy, who, at 19, met her Wild Pioneer. He whisked her off into an adventure, a marriage of forty years, and a life on a remote Hebridean island, where the sea-birds fly, the weather is always changing and whales swim in the deep.

Island Wife by Judy Fairbairns. Posted on July 20, 2016

July 20, 2016 by norqfromork. Someone recommended this book to me recently having just read it, and knowing that I want to pursue publishing and would find this inspiring, I did. Judy tells the story of how she married and moved to the Hebrides at the age of 19 having been swept off her feet by Alex, 10 years her senior. They built a life.

I have just finished Judy Fairbairn's amazing autobiographical book Island Wife. What a moving story by this creative and inspirational woman, weaving in threads of sailing, whale watching, fishing and farming, on a warp of a dutiful wife finding the freedom to express and develop her artistic talents.

Judy Fairbairns 'Island Wife'

On the road to change it is sometimes tempting to look only ahead, eyes focused on each twist and turn in the road. Every corner promises an end, or, at least, a something good, and then, when it's just a corner with the usual rounding and straightening, there is a lift of disappointment.
