Return to Exile (The Hunter Chronicles #1) by E.J. Patten

For the month of March I read the book, Return to Exile, by E.J. Patten. I loved this book because it was so action packed that it made me happy in a way I guess. There was constantly a puzzle being solved or someone fighting something.

Return to Exile by E. J. Patten, John Rocco | Paperback ...

Return to Exile was like Ghostbusters (with teens) meets A Series of Unfortunate Events with a tiny bit of Inception sprinkled on top. It was a pretty cool combination. Just when I thought that nothing else could go wrong, it would go all Unfortunate-Events on me and get worse.

E.J. Patten (Author of Return to Exile) - Goodreads

In April 1974, a beautiful baby boy was born at a small hospital in Mesa, Arizona. E. J. Patten (Eric James) was in the next crib over. The first story he ever wrote involved a strange ad, a Laundromat, and a bowl of chili; thankfully, it was never published.
