The Lost Husband | Katherine Center

The Lost Husband hooked me in right away, this is a story of learning how to navigate a new path in life that's different from where you thought you were headed, it's about embracing not only the positive or happy moments but also acknowledging that the detours helped to shape who you are and if embraced can lead to something wonderful.

The Lost Husband: A Novel: Amazon.ca: Katherine Center: Books

The Lost Husband starts out with Libby living at her mothers house with her two children. They've been there for the past two years because three years previous her husband was tragically killed in a car accident. Libby and her mother don't exactly see eye to eye, so when her estranged aunt sends her a letter inviting her to come live with her Katherine Center: The Lost Husband (and What You Know Now ...

Last week my good friend Katherine Center celebrated the launch of her new book, The Lost Husband, with a party here in Houston. I was lucky enough to get an advance copy of The Lost Husband and I've already read it twice. Yes. Twice. It's one of those stories that you never want to leave. By the time it was over I was committed to moving Katherine Center \(@katherinecenter\) Instagram photos and ...
