THE PORNOGRAPHY OF POWER by Robert Scheer

| Kirkus Reviews

Scheer mostly argues along Michael Moorish lines, stopping here and there to cite sources but generally running with an anti-administration jeremiad that seems about right but also seems very much like preaching to the choir.

The Pornography of Power: Why Defense ... - amazon.com

The Pornography of Power is a compelling investigation into senseless war, greed, congressional pork, neocons, neoliberals, and seemingly limitless debt. It is the story of a republic turned empire. But underlying Scheer's reporting is a conviction that it doesn't have to be this way. Understanding is the first step and he clearly lays out, for all willing to read, what is driving trillions of
