The Religion \(Tannhauser Trilogy\): Tim Willocks ...
The Religion is an excellent book, both for the history of the Great Siege and for the story. Yes, Tannhauser is nearly super human and times, but he is also a flawed normal man at others. Willocks' tale does not hesitate to use graphic violence as appropriate for the story (Read Empires of the Sea, for a purely historical telling) but it is not so overdone as to overshadow the story.

I guess The Religion is a good title it's cryptic and kinda ominous sounding and does have a connection to the actual contents of the story. Despite that, I think that Fucking, Killing & Shitting: Malta 1565 might be a bit more appropriate here.
