Twelve Red Herrings TRIAL AND ERROR It's hard to know exactly where to begin. But first, let me explain why I'm in jail. The trial had lasted for eighteen days, and from the moment the judge had entered the courtroom the public benches had been filled to overflowing. The jury at Leeds Crown Court had been out for almost two days, and rumor had it that they were hopelessly divided. On the

a hot cup of pleasure: Forgotten Book: Twelve Red Herrings ...

Twelve Red Herrings, a collection of 12 stories, is a mixed-bag. The first one, Trial and Error, where a man is framed for murder, is boring and predictable. However, the second one - Cheap at Half the Price, where a trophy-wife wants to buy a necklace as an insurance for the future, is delightful.
