When the Luck of the Irish Ran Out | David J. J. Lynch ...

When the luck of the Irish ran in, morality ran out. David Lynch's book is an amazing story of rampaging greed, dirty doings, even adulterous sex. Old Mother Ireland doffs her peasant's garb and emerges as a svelte, sexy, provocative siren infecting the willing Irish with diseased materialism. Holy Mother church affects a total hypocrite and politics is just another word for corruption. Along with a simple, concise history of Ireland Lynch even makes economics funny and fascinating. The

When the Luck of the Irish Ran Out. David J. Lynch. Palgrave Macmillan, 2010. Find this book: The phrase, the luck of the Irish , has often struck some commentators as odd, referring as it does to a people ravaged by famine, poverty, mass emigration and periodic atrocities inflicted by the English. It may, however, help to explain why when, in the early 1990s, a fortuitous set of
